Study Abroad

Dear _____,

I am so _____ to have the _____ Verb to study abroad!

Studying abroad does not have to be expensive - there are low-cost options available

2. There are scholarships that you can apply for as a study abroad student

3. You can use your financial aid to help fund your study abroad program

I believe we have a flier for financial matters _____ Verb to study _____ Coordinating conjunction, but I will have to go through our files and look for it - it may need to be updated. I will see what I can find. Does this help?

I do have another _____ Pronoun for you - I received an email from a student studying abroad in Queretaro this Spring, Adrian Avina, who is an IB student. When Adrian met with Dr. Pisani to talk about course credit, Dr.

Pisani referred Adrian to our office to see which courses he has already _____ Verb - Past Participle for students studying in Queretaro. However, we don't have this list of courses in our office - I believe that Linda kept this file in her office for Business students. Do you by chance have this information or know where it is located?
