

Jess and Hughie's Love Story

1. Adjective
2. Adjective
3. Year
4. Adjective
5. Verb - Past Tense
6. Noun
7. Noun
8. Noun - Plural
9. Adjective
10. Adjective
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Verb - Past Tense
14. Adjective
15. Adjective
16. First Name Of A Person

Jess and Hughie's Love Story

It was a _____ Adjective and _____ Adjective night...wait a minute: this story takes place in Montepellier, France in July of _____ Year.

It was a _____ Adjective night with a light breeze at the Fitzpatrick's Irish Bar. Our heroine _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ Tense into the pub and laid eyes upon a long-haired _____ Noun pulling pints of Guinness. She was there to make friends, but little did she know she would find a _____ Noun. She pulled up a stool beside her pal Bart, a Dutchman who she'd met the previous summer visiting the town. He had told her this would be the night to meet the local _____ Noun - Plural, our hero included.

On his last night working in the bar, our hero was filled with anticipation for his next adventure. Little did he know, it wouldn't be a _____ Adjective mission. Throwing caution to the wind, he struck up some _____ Adjective banter with the americaine across the counter. A few Jardin Secrets (french beer) later, he said he hoped to see her again - very soon.

Fast forward to the following weekend, and his wish came true. The night began with a _____ Noun and ended with a _____ Noun where he played some of her favorite songs. As they _____ Verb - Past Tense the night away, they knew it was the beinning of something good.

few months later, they had a decision to make: should I stay or should I go? They both went. A New York City adventure was in the cards - and that is where they are as they write this - on a Adjective and Adjective night awaiting hurricane First Name of a Person.