FC Moron Dominates JoeJoe

In their ninth match-up over the past three years, FC Moron _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ up against a _____ Adjective _____ JoeJoe team. Despite a _____ Adjective _____ performance by the Giants which comprise 90% of FC Moron, somehow the JoeJoe's were even _____ Adverb - Comparative _____. Greg Olsen, the _____ Noun _____ of the Olsen twins, was particularly _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ for the FC squad as he was dropped by JoeJoe earlier in the season. He was especially _____ Adjective _____ because he shares a similar _____ Noun _____ style as JoeJoe's president. JoeJoe relied instead on the locks of Sidney Rice to _____ Verb _____ him to two unlikely 4th TDs that roused JoeJoe's chances heading into Monday night. With 2 _____ Adjective _____ running backs playing on Monday night, the chances that JoeJoe would finally beat FC Moron seemed _____ Adjective _____. Jamaal Charles got an early 1st quarter TD and JoeJoe could clearly _____ Verb _____ a victory.
