William and Paula Elope

1.	Adjective
2.	Verb - Present Tense
3.	Noun
4.	Proper Noun
5.	Proper Noun
6.	Verb - Past Participle
7.	Noun
8.	Noun
9.	Number
10.	Number
11.	Noun - Plural
12.	Noun
13.	Adjective
14.	Verb - Past Participle
15.	Noun
16.	Verb
17.	Noun
18.	Verb - Present Tense
19.	Verb - Past Participle
20.	Adjective

William and Paula Elope

November 17th, 1962. It was a fall night. Paula told her parents they she would be over at a friends house. Little did they know she was off to meet her true love and William picked her up at her girlfriends home. They were off to Proper Noun to get Verb - Past Participle. Once they arrived, they learned they needed parental permission since Paula was only 17 years old. Not willing to give up or wait, they looked for a someone who might help them. They came across a on the street. William got out of the car and struck a deal. For Noun Off to the Justice of the Peace. It was not a Adjective ceremony, for they were both of their secret being revealed, however they pulled it off for now! One quick stop at the Noun Verb Noun and the loves birds love was forever cemented in holy matrimony!
It only took 3 months later for the families to discover their secret. Once the truth was revealed, and they were as husband and wife, little Cheryl was verb - Past Participle A mere 5 years later, sweet Vickie was born followed by Little Rachael another 5 years down the road.
They raised their family, through the good and the bad, and three children later followed by three son in laws and 5 grandchildren, they are here tonight to there 50th year of Marriage.

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.