All About Bethany Pritchard

My name is Bethany. I live with my Adjective mother and father in a city in Proper Noun. My best friends in the whole wide word are Proper Noun and Proper Noun. Proper Noun is a Adjective Noun and rides a magical Noun all over her kingdom. Proper Noun is a Noun that flies over Proper Noun kingdom, breathing fire into the faces of all of the Noun - Plural. When I grow up, I want to become an Noun, save all of the Noun - Plural, and never do anything wrong and I will be Adjective.
