

A Landfill Christmas

1. Noun - Plural
2. Proper Noun
3. Noun
4. Proper Noun
5. Adjective
6. Adjective
7. Noun
8. Proper Noun
9. Adjective
10. Adjective
11. Adjective

A Landfill Christmas

Twas the night before Christmas, and not a sole was around, so the _____ Noun - Plural came out to play. There were holiday treats under _____ Proper Noun desk, and cookies left from the bake sale. The little mice knew who's desk to go to, and find the best snacks around. Then came a call from a resident, who didn't know why their _____ Noun did not get picked up. So poor _____ Proper Noun who was on call, had to come back to the office to pick up a truck. He was startled and screamed to find 20 mice sitting by his desk, singing a carol about the cool winter ice. His high pitched squeal, startled the mice, so they _____ Adjective and _____ Adjective, under the GreenCart lid. And what a _____ Noun they did find, since _____ Proper Noun had left the one GreenCart behind. Snacks from our pot luck were still inside, maybe a little _____ Adjective and _____ Adjective, but what a perfect find. _____ Adjective Dave was torn, he didn't know what to do, deal with the resident, or follow the mouse poo.