potato salad

On Monday I ate lunch in the _____ Noun with my best friends. My friend Hayley brought in potato salad that looked like crap. It smelt _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction a dying gorilla. It was yellow as the _____ Noun and it was hard as a rock. I felt like throwing it away, _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction it made me want to throw up. I asked her where she got it from and she said Giant, _____ Coordinating conjunction I said oh so you got it from giant crap. My friends and I started _____ Adverb really hard and we couldn't stop. Then Hayley got up and threw it away and said _____ interjection! Then all of a sudden some random person came to us and said Bubble Guppies are swag and we all cracked up. Then Hayley pulled out more potato salad and I said _____ interjection _____ interjection where did you get that, she said _____ Proper Noun this one tastes much better than the other one. I never tried this one she said. I smacked her and it accidentally went all over her face and up her nose and in her mouth. I asked her which one she liked better she said _____ Adverb not giant crap. Then she said she needed napkins so I went up and got her some. I came back and she is still eating the potato salad. I told her she is weird and she _____ Verb - Base Form her tongue out at me.
