

How to clean a car

1. Present Tense Verb
2. Noun
3. Verb Ending In Ing
4. Plural Noun
5. Liquid
6. Liquid
7. Liquid
8. Present Tense Verb
9. Present Tense Verb
10. Present Tense Verb
11. Present Tense Verb
12. Size
13. Shape
14. Adjective

How to clean a car

the _____^{Noun} out of direct sunlight. This prevents premature _____^{Verb ending in ing} which can leave splotches on the paint.

2. make sure the _____^{Plural noun} are securely closed so no _____^{Liquid} leaks in.

3. Fill a bucket with water and add car wash _____^{Liquid} in the quantity directed on its bottle.

4. Fill another bucket with plain _____^{Liquid}.

_____^{Present tense verb} off the car to loosen the dirt. Don't use a strong jet, as this can rub grit over the paint and _____^{Present tense verb} it.

_____^{Present tense verb} a large wash mitt or sponge in the soapy water, being certain to wash out any dirt in it, and begin applying it to the car. Do not use a _____^{Present tense verb} on the car body -- this will leave _____^{Size} scratches.

7. Wash the car section by section, starting at the top. _____^{Shape} around the car several times, washing lower areas with each round.

8. Rinse the dirt out of the wash mitt or sponge in the bucket with plain water frequently.

9. and taaaadaaaa! you have a Adjective car!