Forest Fun

Today my class and I took a Field trip to Dark Pine No Escape park. Our teacher led us _____ Adverb on a nature trail called Come Closer. We were having a grand time searching for animal/beast tracks. Eventually we found one made by a wild rebichist. The rebichist was a _____ Adjective _____ Noun and on the top of the food chain. It was mildly intelligent and likes to eat rotting leaves, _____ Conjunction it loves berries. My teacher said that _____ Preposition the winters, some of the animals would even _____ Verb - Base Form children! _____ Interjection! That's exciting! It was easy to find tracks on the nature trail because they were fresh made in a thick layer or snow. Towards lunch, we were warm enough to take our _____ Noun - Plural off for a short while. As we _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ Preposition the next trail, called Last Breath, one of our classmates, _____ Name, disappeared from the back of our group. We figured that _____ Pronoun was just taking time eating _____ Pronoun lunch and that we would see _____ Pronoun back at the bus. Then, we heard a loud _____ Adjective howl that our teacher said resembled that of the rebichist. When the teacher finally said we had to go back, we had only lost eight of our classmates, which apparently was a record. The bus ride back was filled with happy memories of what we had witnessed. " _____ Interjection! everybody shouted _____ Adverb when we finally got dropped off at school by our slightly bloodstained, _____ Conjunction intact, bus.
