

The Bathroom Mystery

1. Adjective
2. Noun
3. Color
4. Preposition
5. Pronoun
6. Verb - Past Tense
7. Pronoun
8. Verb - Past Tense
9. Adverb
10. Adverb
11. Adjective
12. Preposition
13. Noun

The Bathroom Mystery

Today, Connor went to the bathroom and saw a very Adjective Noun. It took out its ray gun and shot at Connor! The blast shot weird Color goo. So then he went to the cafeteria and shouted out " THERE IS A(N) Repeat Last Noun Preposition THE BATHROOM!" Nobody believed him and they went back to eating. He was then so scared to use the bathroom that he wore diapers all the time. People didn't like him anymore because of the smell of Pronoun diaper. Everyday, Connor worked up the nerve to peek in the bathroom and saw the creepy Repeat Last Noun and ran. It scared him so much that he died. One day a new boy found the alien. They Verb - Past Tense it, or did they? The alien was still alive! Pronoun Verb - Past Tense Adverb through the halls shooting goo Adverb. It felt like it could do anything until, Connor came back to life! And he faced his fears and killed the Repeat Last Noun once and for all! The town gave Connor a certificate and a million dollars. He then bought a bunch of Adjective stuff and now lives Preposition Atlanta. He lives there with his best friend. They lived happily ever after until the Noun invaded 4 years later. Everybody died.