Red Riding Hood

Once upon a time there was a _____ Adjective little _____ Noun who was loved by everyone who looked at her, but most of all by her grandmother, and there was nothing that she would not have given to the _____ Noun. Once she _____ Verb her a little riding _____ Noun of red velvet, which suited her so well that she would never wear anything else; so she was always called 'Little _____ Adjective Riding Hood.'

One _____ Noun _____ Pronoun mother said to her: 'Come, Little _____ Adjective Riding Hood, here is a piece of cake and a bottle of wine; take them to your grandmother, she is ill and weak, and they will do her good. Set out before it gets _____ Adjective, and when you are going, walk nicely and quietly and do not run off the path, or you may fall and break the bottle, and then your grandmother will get nothing; and when you go into her room, don't forget to say, "Good morning", _____ Conjunction don't _____ Verb into every corner before you do it.'

'I will take great care,' said Little _____ Adjective Riding _____ Noun to her _____ Noun, and gave her hand on it.

The grandmother lived out in the wood, half a league from the village, and just as Little Red Riding Hood entered the wood, a wolf met her. _____ Adjective Riding Hood did not know what a wicked creature he was, and was not at all afraid of him.

'Good _____ Noun, Little _____ Adjective Riding Hood,' said he.

'Thank you kindly, _____ Noun.'

'Whither away so early, Little Red Riding _____ Noun?'

'To

my grandmother's.'

'What have you got in your apron?'

'Cake and wine; yesterday was baking-day, so poor sick grandmother is to have something good, to make her stronger.'

'Where does your Noun live, Little Red Riding Hood?'

'A good quarter of a league farther on in the wood; her house stands under the three Adjective oak-trees, the nut-trees are just below; you Adverb must know it,' replied Little Adjective Riding Hood.

The wolf thought to himself: 'What a tender young creature! what a nice plump mouthful - she will be better to eat than the old woman. I must act Adverb, so as to catch both.'

So he walked for a short time by the side of Little Red Riding Hood, and then he said: 'See, Little Red Riding Hood, how pretty the flowers are about here - why do you not look round? I Verb, too, that you do not hear how Adverb the little birds are Verb - Present ends in ING; you walk gravely along as if you were going to school, while everything else out here Preposition the wood is merry.'

Little Red Riding Hood raised her eyes, and when she saw the sunbeams dancing here and there through the trees, and pretty flowers Verb - Present ends in ING everywhere, she thought: 'Suppose I take grandmother a fresh nosegay; that would please her too. It is so early in the day that I shall still get there Preposition good Noun.'

So she ran from the path into the wood to look for flowers. And whenever she had picked one, she fancied that she saw a still prettier one farther on, and ran after _____ Pronoun _____, and so got deeper and deeper into the wood.

Meanwhile the wolf ran straight to the grandmother's house and _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ Preposition _____ the door.

'Who is there?'

'Little Red Riding Hood,' replied the wolf. 'She is bringing cake and wine; open the door.'

_____ Verb _____ the latch,' _____ Verb _____ out the grandmother, 'I am too weak, and cannot get up.'

The wolf lifted the latch, the door sprang open, and without saying a word he went straight to the grandmother's bed, and devoured her. Then he put on her clothes, dressed himself in her cap, _____ Verb _____ himself in bed and drew the curtains.

Little Red Riding Hood, however, had been running about _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ flowers, and when she had gathered so many that she could carry no more, she _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ her grandmother, and set out on the way to her.

She was surprised to find the cottage-door _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ open, and when she went into the room, she had such a strange feeling that she said to herself: 'Oh dear! how uneasy I feel today, and at other times I like being with grandmother so much.' She called out: 'Good morning,' but _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ no answer; so she went to the bed and drew back the curtains. There lay her grandmother with her cap _____ Verb _____ far over her face, and _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ very strange.

_____ Interjection _____! grandmother,' she said, 'what big ears you have!'

'All

the better to hear you with, my child,' was the reply.

'But, grandmother, what Adjective eyes you have!' she said.

'All the better to see you with, my dear.'

'But, grandmother, what Adjective hands you have!'

'All the better to hug you with.'

Interjection! but, grandmother, what a Adjective big mouth you have!'

'All the better to eat you with!'

And scarcely had the wolf said this, than with one bound he was out of bed and swallowed up Red Riding Hood.

When the wolf had appeased his appetite, he lay down again in the bed, fell asleep and began to snore very Adjective.

The huntsman was just passing the house, and thought to himself: 'How the old woman is Verb - Present ends in ING! I must just see if she wants anything.' So he went into the room, and when he came to the bed, he saw that the wolf was lying in it.

'Do I find you here, you old sinner!' Verb - Past Tense Pronoun. 'I have long sought you!' But just as he was going to fire at him, it occurred to him that the wolf might have devoured the grandmother, and that she might still be Verb - Past Tense, so he did not fire, but took a pair Preposition scissors, and began to cut open the stomach of the sleeping wolf.

When he had made two snips, he saw the little red riding hood shining, and then he made Adjective snips more, and the little girl sprang out, _____ Verb - Present ends in ING : 'Ah, how frightened I have been! How dark it was inside the wolf.'

After that the aged _____ Noun came out alive also, but scarcely able to breathe. _____ Adjective Riding Hood, however, _____ Adverb fetched great _____ Noun with which they filled the wolf's belly, and when he awoke, he wanted to run away, but the stones were so heavy that he collapsed at once, and fell dead.

Then all three were delighted. The _____ Noun drew off the wolf's skin and went home with it; the grandmother _____ Verb the cake and drank the wine which Red Riding _____ Noun had brought, and revived. But Red Riding Hood thought to herself: 'As long as I live, I will never leave the _____ Noun by myself to run into the wood, when my mother has forbidden me to do so.'

It is also related that once, when Red Riding Hood was again taking cakes to the old grandmother, another wolf _____ Verb to her, and tried to _____ Verb her from the path. Red Riding Hood, however, was on her guard, and went straight forward on her way, and told her grandmother that she had met the wolf, and that he had said 'good morning' to her, but with such a wicked look in his eyes, that if they had not _____ Verb on the public road she was certain he would have _____ Verb her up.

_____ Interjection , 'said the grandmother, 'we will shut the door, so that he can not come in.'

Soon afterwards the wolf knocked, and cried: 'Open the door, grandmother, I am Little _____ Adjective Riding Hood, and am bringing you some cakes.'

But they did not speak, or open the door, so the grey-beard stole twice or thrice round the house, and at last jumped on the roof, intending to wait until _____ Adjective Riding Hood went home in the _____ Noun , and then to steal after her and devour her in the darkness. But the grandmother saw what was in his thoughts.

In front of the house was a great Noun trough, so she said to the Noun: 'Take the pail, Red Riding Hood; I made some sausages yesterday, so Verb the water in which I Verb them to the trough.'

Adjective Riding Hood carried until the great trough was quite full. Then the smell of the sausages reached the wolf, and he sniffed and peeped down, and at last stretched out his neck so far that he could no longer keep his footing and began to Verb, and slipped down from the roof straight into the great

Noun, and was Verb. But Red Riding Hood went joyously Noun, and no one ever did anything to harm her again.
