

Who Stole the Bunny? (Part 2)

1. Body Part
2. Vehicle
3. Subject In School
4. Year
5. Noun - Plural
6. Adjective
7. Adverb
8. Sport
9. Student Organization
10. Adjective
11. Adjective
12. Liquid
13. Famous Person
14. Body Part
15. First Name Of A Person
16. Letter
17. Last Name
18. Same Vehicle As Before
19. Adjective
20. Adverb
21. Washu Student
22. Noun
23. Adverb

24. Adjective

Who Stole the Bunny? (Part 2)

Campus police _____ followed the _____ tracks across the lawn towards the _____ building, originally built in _____ as a dormitory for female _____.

Chancellor _____ Mark Wrighton was called from a _____ game of _____ in his basement to join the hunt.

"I had been playing with the President of _____ since 6pm, about the time the rest of the campus usually falls into a _____ stupor. I do hate to lose that _____ bunny," he continued, kicking at _____ cans strewn across the lawn. "It was on loan from _____ and the alumni association will have my _____."

When the entourage reached _____ hall, the _____ tracks stopped and a _____ object had _____ been dragged through the mud into the front entrance.

"Stand back!" cried _____, Class of 2005, now Lieutenant of Campus Police, drawing his/her _____, and _____ entering the _____ building.