Dear Dad

Dear Proper Noun,

When mom came up with the idea to do these letters, we all obviously decided to do something

Adjective and Adjective with them. I hope that you Verb filling in my Mad Lib and that you return it to me when you come home so I can Verb what you Adverb to fill in. :)

I hope that everything is going Adjective for you in D.C. While I am Verb this letter, I'm not at school, but by the time you read this, I will be. Hopefully by this point in the semester I am Adverb my classes, and slowly getting used to having an 8 am class. (Although I highly doubt that)

I hope that while you are gone you will Verb lots of pictures and become a D.C. expert so if Noun get the chance to come and visit you, Noun can be a successful tour guide. Keep enjoying yourself and get out and Adverb all the cool things you can while you are there. I miss you, and I can't wait to Verb you soon!!

Love,

Proper Noun
