

How to Be Safe Online

1. Proper Noun
2. Adjective
3. Proper Noun
4. Proper Noun
5. Adjective
6. Adjective
7. Adjective
8. Noun
9. Noun
10. Pronoun
11. Noun
12. Adverb
13. Event
14. Event
15. Adjective
16. Noun
17. Proper Noun
18. Verb - Base Form
19. Adjective
20. Adjective
21. Adjective
22. Noun

How to Be Safe Online

The _____ Proper Noun can be a perfectly safe place if you follow a few simple rules and use some _____ Adjective settings. Whether you're social networking on sites like _____ Proper Noun and _____ Proper Noun, writing a blog, creating a _____ Adjective website or just browsing the Web, you have to be careful. Adding too much personal information to your sites can get you into trouble.

Bank , credit card numbers, , phone numbers, email addresses, home property values, credit and criminal are examples of types of personal data online. Although sometimes this data is meant to be kept private, in many cases the information is public record.

If you're concerned that your private data could be _____ Adjective made public, here are some steps you can take:

- Using good online _____ Adjective can be one of your best forms of protection.

- Don't fall victim to _____ Noun, identity _____ Noun, phishing schemes and other online _____ Pronoun

- Be mindful of what you sign up for online, including the websites you join and the "free services" you choose to use.

- If you feel a website is asking for too much personal _____ Noun, simply leave it.

-

Be sure to read and _____ understand a website's _____ and _____ features.

- Use secure _____; don't share your information with _____; and don't sign up for anything that you don't completely understand or _____.

- If something appears too good to be _____, chances are it probably is.

- If something seems a bit _____ or _____, follow your _____, and just stay away.