

Buying a Book

1. Adjective
2. Adjective
3. Adjective
4. Noun
5. Verb - Base Form
6. Noun

Buying a Book

Buying a book can be great fun. It is very _____ Adjective _____ to pick out your own book. First you need to keep in mind how well you can read, because you don't want to pick a book that is too _____ Adjective _____ or too easy for you. Think about what you like to read. Do you like to read funny, real, scary, or mystery books? Then after you decide what you would like the genre of the story to be, find a book that you think looks _____ Adjective _____.

Here's a tip: Read the back of the _____ Noun _____. It will usually tell about the book. You can also _____ Verb - Base Form _____ through the first few _____ Noun _____ to see if you like it, and that it is in your level!!!