The Orange Peel

He was in a _____ Adjective garbage can along with two rotten bananas and some gunk. He was the only one that was a beautiful bright _____ Adjective on one side. The bananas envied him. They hated their old rotten brown _____ Noun and their slimy gooey faces.

The orange peel, however, paid no attention to them. He _____ Verb - Past Tense about the blue _____ Noun - _____ Plural of the orange farm where he was born. He was once part of a great juicy orange hanging from the branch of a large _____ Noun _____ Noun. When it was time, the farmer picked him off and put him into a box with many other _____ Noun - Plural.

The grocery store was a beautiful place. Rows and rows of brown crates held _____ Noun - Plural and vegetables of every color, shape, and size. It was like a rainbow.

Then he was bought and brought home to a house. He joined many other fruits and vegetables in the _____ Noun. The two bananas had been there for a while and they had begun to rot. They laughed at his fat juicy _____ Noun and asked him why he wasn't curved _____ Adverb like them.

When it was time to get _____ Verb - Past Tense, he felt nervous. He didn't know what would happen as this was going to be his first time. He also knew that foods rarely got the chance to live to tell the story.

As he was being _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ under _____ Adjective _____ water he saw a sharp silver thing cut into him.

He panicked a little but relaxed realizing it caused no pain.

He dropped into the _____ Noun _____ as a peel. It was after the juicy _____ Adjective _____ meat was all gone that the only conscience of him that was left was on one piece of peel. The other peels were stuffed down the _____ Noun _____ and ground up. For some reason just on piece of orange peel was thrown into the garbage. And that was him.

Several days later, the two rotten bananas came in, too. They were always complaining about their appearances and wishing they had been born as some other _____ Noun _____ that gets more attention. The orange peel thought about this. He did occasionally wonder what it would have been like had he been an _____ Noun _____ or a peach.

However, he thought, it was _____ Adjective _____ to be part of an orange.
