

How to prepare for a cat and what to expect

1. Adjective
2. Noun
3. Verb - Base Form
4. Noun
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Noun
8. Noun - Plural
9. Noun
10. Noun
11. Noun - Plural
12. Noun
13. Noun
14. Adjective
15. Adjective
16. Noun
17. Verb - Past Tense
18. Noun

How to prepare for a cat and what to expect

How to prepare for a cat and what to expect

Meow! Meow! What an _____^{Adjective} _____^{Noun}! What's that? What's that you say? You are getting that one? Do you know what to expect and know how to _____^{Verb - Base Form} for one? NO!! Well, let me tell you!

Getting a _____^{Noun}? These following items will make things easier for you! Get a litter box, 1 bag of litter and food. Also 2 food bowls, a few brushes, and just for fun a _____^{Noun}! You need to know where your cat's vet is. Kitty will need to stay inside or outside. In conclusion YOU need to decide whether or not you want an inside kitty or an outside kitty. If you want an inside kitty, _____^{Noun} proof! Also inside or outside your _____^{Noun} needs lots and lots of _____^{Noun - Plural}!

I know you are raring to get your _____^{Noun}. But no! You need to know what to do. So these things will be what you need to do. 1. You need know what cat breed you want. If it does not matter, go to step 2.2.

_____^{Noun} proof everything! Make sure everything cats could get into is hidden. Glass vases, _____^{Noun - Plural}, antiques are all things cats can get into and break! So the best way to say that is you need to _____^{Noun} proof. And last but not least, you need have or find time to spend with kitty. You'll need to brush, feed, and play with _____^{Noun}.

If you know that you can be _____ Adjective _____, good! If not, that's ok. Try your best to be gentle. Kitty might bite you here and there. But that's ok! You probably just _____ Adjective _____ her. She might just want some space. Just let her be. If it seems that she does not look healthy, go to the vet A.S.A.P. If you got all that go to the next paragraph.

Yes! Yes! You can go get your _____ Noun _____! Here are a few tips on choosing your kitty. Go to a pet store, animal shelter, or a cat breeder. Ask the person if the cat you like is a boy or girl. If it's a girl ask if it is _____ Verb - Past Tense _____. So now can get _____ Noun _____!