Regression Analysis Memories

My first memory of regression analysis was _____ Number _____ years ago, when I took Introduction to Statistics.

That class was _____ Adjective _____! I had a _____ Adjective _____ professor, named _____ Famous person _____.

I remember _____ Regression Thought _____ and _____ Regression Thought _____. That year I got a pet, _____ Animal _____. So I was very concerned with _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ my _____ Animal _____. Instead of studying I was always _____ Something you did in college _____. I ended up needing to cram before every exam and always drank 5 pots of _____ Drink _____. I spent an all nighter at _____ Place on campus _____! I ended up doing fine in that class, but could never remember how to calculate _____ Regression Thought _____ and _____ Regression Thought _____. Now I know that regression analysis makes up the basis of a number of statistical methods. I may even use regressions for my work with _____ A community group you are working with _____.
