Miner Mad Libs

In the 1800s there was _____ Adjective gold rush, and I was one to live through it. I had _____ Number kids. We needed money to keep living in _____ Proper Noun. So I, Bob went to join the gold rush in _____ Proper Noun. I was interested in _____ Verb - Present Tense how to mine, but I didn't have the _____ Noun to take lessons. So I just experimented and hoped it would work. As the Rush began I was making a decent amount of money. But as more _____ Noun - Plural started showing up, the daily find became _____ Adverb - Comparative and _____ Adverb - Comparative.
