Hehe Eulogy

I would like to thank you for being here to honor my Uncle, and to support his I know it would please that you have come to say one last to a dear and family member. On my way here Monday morning I was struck by the of the of the The streets wereand there were bigAdjectiveNoun - Plural falling catching the lights. It was the type of morning my Uncle George would have enjoyed. He had a good eye for the and would have internalized the feeling of I believe that the outdoors offered him a place of peace and the chance to discover something new. It was these beliefs that lead him to experience many across North America over the years. One of my Mom's favourite stories was when he rented a canoe in Algonquin Park and hitch over 12 miles with it. He was a man who enjoyed the challenge of a seemingly impossible adventure.
Nature is a common theme in my Uncle's life. He combined his artistic talents with that of his love for the outdoors and started a small photography company called Perfect Prints. There are a few pieces of my Uncle's photography here. These pieces provide a small into his inner soul. In nature, and in his photography, he found his place to give to God for his gifts. In faith he was a quiet man. Let me use the word of God, who is more capable then I at describing my Uncle's faith. 1 Peter 3:4 let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious.
