

Camping

1. Adjective
2. Verb - Base Form
3. Food
4. Liquid
5. Color
6. Verb - Base Form
7. Weather
8. Vehicle
9. Verb-Person
10. Verb-Person
11. Adjective

Camping

Camping is always Adjective. You can Verb - Base Form in the lake, roast Food, and hike in the woods. Always bring plenty of liquid to drink and prepare yourself for an adventure. However, there's many dangers in camping. For instance, a color bear could always Verb - Base Form into your camping area and eat all your food, or it can weather and make everything wet and gross. If anything really bad happens, have a good backup plan. Be sure that you have a vehicle or some kind of ride in case you need to go home, and always have a verb-person with you. Camping can be a great experience, if you do it right. Be sure to bring some verb-person to make the trip Adjective fun!