Today is our family reunion!!!! It is going to be so fun seeing all of my family members plus i get to meet my brand new baby cousin!!! All i have seen was some pictures of him i think that pictures will not help! But the only thing i am not looking for is seeing my uncle bob !!! He is on the biggest _____Noun_____ but i think he should go on biggest facial make over!! Let me describe some of my family members!!! First let me start with my _____adjective_____ uncle bob he has a lot of hair, he has a _____adjective_____ sense of _____Noun_____!!!! Next let me describe my new baby cousin i heard he has a little bit of hair (not sure what color you know babies usually do not have hair yet even if they do it is just a little!), he has that new baby smell you know that wonderful smell that everyone goes crazy for!!!! Then comes my Aunt linda she is the one that needs to be with uncle bob every day working out with him but since she lives in florida i do not think uncle bob or aunt linda wants to be flying out and in every day just to work out!!! So lets get to the describing she has blonde hair, and is super _____Noun_____ she pinches my cheeks every time she sees me! So now it is time to go and i am not looking forward to be sitting in the kids table again because my cousin louis is so fat that he eats _____Noun_____ before i get my hands on the _____Noun_____!!!! But i have to be polite so i do not say anything!!!! Check for the follow up soon!!!!
