How to make a milkshake

So you want to tackle the _____ Adjective and challenging milkshake? This typically _____ Adjective process is challenging to most because they don't understand when to put in the ice cream. A _____ Noun is to scoop it in after the milk is settled in the blender. Quick note, do not let the blender _____ Noun you from making your own milk shake, although the blades are sharp and horrifying, don't be afraid to place them together and get the thing working. If you have an _____ Adjective blender, this may take longer than those of us with the normal three speeder, but do take your time with all your fanciness and high speed controls. After the ice cream is in the blender, add the top you want in your milk shake. Personally, I normally add bananas and chocolate, but whatever you feel at the time should go in now. Finally, dollop the milk in and sit back in _____ Noun as the blender swirls around. The _____ Adjective mixture of ice cream and chocolate will bring you back to your child hood. After finishing do not _____ Adverb let your dirty dishes sit, clean them up so that in a few more hours you can make yourself another delicious milk shake!
