One day there was a boy named	Proper Noun	_ who was vi	siting Rome	Noun	is from a small town in southern Italy, and has never been to	to Rome befo	re. He came	to Rome because	se he wanted	to see all the history and sites the city has to offer. was told of this really	Adjective	restaurai	nt to eat at, and	while lookir	ng at his map he realized he was going to climb this	Adjective	staircase to	get there. He	noticed that t	here were a lot of people there climbing the stairs too. H	Ie though it w	as funny, wh	y would anyon	e want to pu	t themselves through all that. But little did he know, he was	Verb - Pres	sent ends in ING	up the Span	ish Steps!
After eating a meal,	his next plac	e to see was	the collaseum.	He took the .	Noun because it was the easiest and cheapes	st way to get a	around. When	n he got off, and	d opened the	doors to go outside, he was amazed. The Collaseum was r	ight there! He	e couldn't wai	t to tour the ins	side. Not	was interested in everything, from them architecture	to the old arti	ifacts that we	re put on displa	ıy. He began	to image himself as
