

Maddie sweet and 16

1. Number
2. Verb
3. Verb
4. Particle
5. Noun - Plural
6. Proper Noun
7. Proper Noun
8. Proper Noun
9. Proper Noun
10. Verb
11. Verb
12. Verb
13. Noun
14. Noun
15. Noun
16. Proper Noun
17. Proper Noun
18. Verb - Present Tense
19. Adjective

Maddie sweet and 16

Maddie was born in February of _____^{Number}_____. From the very beginning, she seemed different from other children. While most children were content to _____^{Verb}_____, Maddie liked to _____^{Verb} _____^{Particle}_____ constantly in different _____^{Noun - Plural}_____. This concerned her mother, who only wanted her to be like _____^{Proper Noun}_____. As she grew older, Maddie grew more and more independent and made a lot of friends, like _____^{Proper Noun}_____ and _____^{Proper Noun}_____ even had a crush on _____^{Proper Noun}_____ Waple. Kyle and her would often get together and _____^{Verb}_____ and _____^{Verb}_____ with chalk. When Maddie went to Emmet Belknap, she met new people and learned to _____^{Verb} _____^{Noun}_____ and _____^{Noun}_____. In high school, she played _____^{Noun}_____ and had a crush on _____^{Proper Noun}_____ Wendt. She traveled to _____^{Proper Noun}_____ and spend a lot of time _____^{Verb - Present Tense}_____ crafts. Maddie grew to be a _____^{Adjective}_____ young woman.