Song by John Donne

Verse 1: _____ Proper Noun love, I am not leaving you through weariness of you, nor in hope that the _____ Noun can display a more suitable _____ Noun for me. Rather since I will of necessity _____ Verb - Base Form in the end, I may as well treat my existence _____ Adjective and feign death by a succession of departures which are little _____ Noun - Plural.

Verse 2: The _____ Noun set last night, but _____ Verb - Past Tense again today, and he has no _____ Noun or feeling motivating him, and a much longer _____ Noun to make, so have confidence in me and have faith that my journeys will be swifter since I have more reasons to return.

Verse 3: How feeble our power which prevents us prolonging good luck or retrieving an hour of its duration. But we conspire with bad _____ Noun to make things worse.

Verse 4: When you sigh you are not sighing breath away but my _____ Noun, and when you _____ Noun, which is both sweetness and a torment, my life's _____ Noun decays. Surely you cannot _____ Verb - Base _____ Form me, as you say, if you waste my being which is also your being

Verse 5: Don't let your _____ Adjective - Ends in EST heart seemingly prophesy disaster for me, otherwise fate might second you and bring it about; rather consider it as though we had turned away to _____ Noun. Two _____ Noun

who keep one another alive, can thereby never be parted.
