

Brette and Ron's Story

1. Verb - Past Tense
2. Adverb

Brette and Ron's Story

Brette and Ron met on Match.com. On their first date Ron forgot where he Verb - Past Tense his car! For their second date Ron brought over Shiner Bock beer and they watched Texas A&M basketball. This won Brette over more than he would Adverb know.

Ron proposed on a private sunset cruise while on vacation in Florida. He snuck the ring on the boat in the cooler and even had the captain worried as he waited to just the right moment of the sunset to ask. To much of Ron's amazement Brette could only respond by shaking her head yes, he had her speechless.

They will be united in a few short weeks in San Antonio. Everyone can look forward to fun at the Riverwalk, company of family and friends, and a wedding on a Ranch! We wish Ron and Brette the best wishes, love, and support for the years to come in their blissful marriage.