

"Conflicting Visions of "the American "

1. Famous Person Female First Name _____
2. Last Name _____
3. Location _____
4. Noun One _____
5. Noun One _____
6. Adjective One _____
7. Adjective Two _____
8. Adjective Three _____
9. Adjective _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Adjective _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Noun _____
14. Adjective One _____
15. Adverb _____
16. Number _____
17. Noun One _____
18. Noun _____
19. Adjective One _____
20. Adjective Two _____
21. Adjective _____
22. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____

23. Noun - Plural
24. Noun One
25. Adjective Two
26. Noun One
27. Color
28. Adjective Two
29. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
30. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
31. Noun One
32. Noun - Plural
33. Noun - Plural
34. Noun - Plural
35. Color
36. Adjective Three
37. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
38. Noun One
39. Verb - Base Form
40. Noun One
41. Number
42. Noun - Plural
43. Noun - Plural
44. Noun One
45. Adjective
46. Adjective Three
47. Noun One

- 48. Adjective
- 49. Animal
- 50. Planet
- 51. Year
- 52. Verb - Past Tense

"Conflicting Visions of "the American _____"

_____ Famous Person Female First Name _____ Last Name _____ visited the class in _____ Location _____ on Tuesday and shared her powerpoint presentation titled "Conflicting Visions of "the American _____ Noun One _____. She defined three categories for _____ Noun One _____ definitions, called _____ Adjective One _____, _____ Adjective Two _____ and _____ Adjective Three _____. These categories were replaced by _____ Adjective _____, _____ Adjective _____ and _____ Adjective _____, respectively, in order to sound less " _____ Adjective _____. One white _____ Noun _____ classified as an _____ Adjective One _____ stated, "Marriage... I feel pretty _____ Adverb _____ about because I've been married _____ Number _____ times and I've been in a few of these situations. So I think the marriage part makes it a _____ Noun One _____ whether we want it to be or not sometimes." Marriage is a main _____ Noun _____ of an _____ Adjective One _____ view. A _____ Adjective Two _____ Adjective _____ male said, "Um.. Marriage and children... I just, two people _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ together are just roommates to me. As soon as there are _____ Noun - Plural _____ involved then it's a _____ Noun One _____. Whether they're both the same sex or not..." Children are most important in the _____ Adjective Two _____ definitions of _____ Noun One _____. Signals of commitment also matter. A _____ Color _____ Adjective Two _____ woman stated, "Okay, to me, it's like people that are _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ on being together for a long period of time. Like being together forever. I've heard of best friends _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ in together, and they're kind of like _____ Noun One _____. So to me it's two _____ Noun - Plural _____ that are going to be committed to each other for the long haul, not just... I don't know. No, I mean I'm not saying that two _____ Noun - Plural _____ and two _____ Noun - Plural _____ can't be in it for the long haul, but there's nothing binding them together." A _____ Color _____ Adjective Three _____ male said, "A _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ arrangement doesn't make a _____ Noun One _____, period. How the people _____ Verb - Base Form _____ each other makes a _____ Noun One _____. How the respect between two people or between a group of people. Not just _____ Number _____ people, but a group of people. _____ Noun - Plural _____ as well as _____ Noun - Plural _____. How they are treated and how they are brought back together makes a _____ Noun One _____."

A _____ Adjective _____ Adjective Three _____ woman said, "Two people that care about each other and form a relationship that feels familial, that may be the only _____ Noun One _____ that they have around or I don't know, living together in a _____ Adjective _____ setting, or I don't know I feel like I'd have to have a rough draft, but yeah that's basically it. Um, pets count too. Definitely, cause I consider my _____ Animal _____ like kind of a child. Actually, my child. _____ Planet _____ view on same-sex marriage has also changed since the year _____ Year _____ and support for same-sex marriage has _____ Verb - Past Tense _____.

