

The Third Weirdest Day Ever

1. Place
2. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
3. Food
4. Same Food
5. Adjective
6. Food Used Above
7. Adjective
8. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
9. Noun
10. Exclamation
11. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
12. Adjective
13. Verb - Past Tense
14. Noun
15. Adjective
16. Noun

The Third Weirdest Day Ever

Maggie and Amy were walking down the street to the place. Suddenly a gigantic squirrel jumped out of a nearby bush and started Verb - Present ends in ING. They both started running in the opposite direction when they ran into Monica. Monica, who had been carrying a plate of food, dropped the same food. The Adjective squirrel then ran over and started eating the food used above. Just then, from across the street, Claire yelled, "Oh my gosh, a squirrel!" She then ran over and jumped on it back and yelled, "Giddy up!" The Adjective beast ran down the street and ran past Kelli. She shrieked in delight and climbed on its back behind Claire. While Verb - Present ends in ING, the squirrel knocked over a garbage Noun that rolled across the path of Quinlan. "exclamation!" she shouted and watched the squirrel fade in the distance. Emily and Hannah had been Verb - Present ends in ING peacefully when the squirrel ran by, and they thought Kelli and Claire had been kidnapped the that Adjective mammal. The got their friend Gabrielle and Verb - Past Tense their Noun after the run away squirrel, but their was no need. For Kelli and Claire had hopped of the squirrel after it had boarded a Adjective ship headed toward Zimbabwe. The wished the squirrel farewell, and watched it sail away in the Noun.