Rumors from the KKK

"They were verb - Present ends in ING that the Catholic and nuns were having sexual relationships and they'd the babies. They'd have Noun - Plural All the kind of stuff.
They ripped the stomachs of the nuns open and would take the baby. All that kind of business. Just Adjective things.
They would never come out and say things but they would imply a lot of And, then you would draw your own conclusions about how the Catholics and priests and nuns Of course, the friary didn't belong to the Catholics anymore. But, there actually was an underground passage between the two.
And, of course the whole community made a lot of that.
Where the [convent] academy, they had their own to bury their dead from the Noun - Plural that was born to the girls there in that thing I verb - Past Tense curious where the graveyard was [but] I didn't ask anybody" (Hartshorne, 144).
