| When Melanie met this girl 5 years ago, she absolutely adored her. Nothing makes her happier |
|---|
| than the fact that she will soon get to officially call this little girl a Melanie was reminded of |
| herself as a little one; with the brown and the outfits she |
| picked out herself. Melanie likes to think of this gal as a "mini-me." They've gone crazy |
| together many a night, both joining and founding the infamous "weirdos" and always have fun |
| when they're together. They've spent nights tie-dying, gone out for bowling and arcade |
| games, gotten wild and carzy manicures on their |
| along the boardwalk sharing, gone out to dinner, and just goofed off in the basement. Even when |
| they Verb - Past Tense a Noun they still managed to have a great time. Melanie has watched this |
| girl, both ballet and point, in countless shows and is always blown away by her talent and |
| knows it will only grow in this summer. She has such a stage presence and Melanie has no doubt |
| that this young girl will grow up to do things. They share so many things in |
| common, from their absolute obsession with Butter, the MOST amazing dessert in the whole |
| wide world, to their decision to donate their long locks to people who are in need of such |
| hair. The fact that Melanie did this for the first time when she was in high school, and her |
| soon-to-be-little-sister did it for the first time when she was only years old, shows how truly |
| remarkable she really is. But, whatever you do, don't get between this wild little girl and her favorite dessert, |
| , then you might see a different side of her, and it's one you don't want to mess with! Watching her |
| grow |
