

Idaho Youth Summit Mad Lib you can't resist filling out

1. The First Summer You Went To The Idaho Youth Summit
2. Your Favorite Family Group Leader
3. Number
4. Number
5. Old-School Rock Star
6. Name Of A Lollipop Brand
7. Condiment
8. Adjective
9. Something A Janitor Uses
10. Number
11. Tv Personality
12. The Cost Of Three Lattes
13. Your Proudest Achievement
14. The First Or Last Year You Went To Iys
15. The Funniest Person You Met At Iys

Idaho Youth Summit Mad Lib you can't resist filling out

Dear Kelsey,

Do you remember the summer of _____ The first summer you went to the Idaho Youth Summit _____? Of course you do! Wasn't the Idaho Youth Summit the bomb? (Kaboom.) I think so. I won't forget the time we found out that _____ Your _____ favorite Family Group Leader _____ was your Family Group Leader. You were so lucky! Group _____ Number _____ was a funky bunch. I think you ate the majority of the _____ Number _____ foot long orange split that year, and our guest speaker was the guy with the guitar. I think his name was _____ old-school rock star _____. You loved that energizer " _____ name of a lollipop brand _____ Da-Da." And who can forget our favorite campfire song "Fish & Chips & _____ condiment _____?" Didn't you stay in that _____ Adjective _____ Broken _____ something a janitor uses _____ Cabin that year? Anyways, I think that IYS has been around for like _____ Number _____ some years. By the way, wouldn't you love to help iDFY keep building leaders like me, you, & _____ tv personality _____? Will you join me in giving $ _____ the cost of three lattes _____ this May 2nd on Idaho's Day of Giving? After all, without the Idaho Youth Summit, you probably wouldn't have become the _____
your proudest achievement _____.

Thanks for helping kids have the same experience we did in _____ The first or last year you went to IYS _____.

Your camp friend,

the funniest person you met at IYS

