A life in UCA Middle/High school

Life here on the third floor of _____ Proper Noun is anything but _____ Adjective! We have lots of _____ Adjective characters. _____ Adjective off there is Tyler who goes in and out of any _____ Noun he wants. He is especially _____ Verb - Present ends in S math class. He is always _____ Verb - Present ends in ING Mr. Hindman that he does not like him. He sometimes whines during a spelling test and he even _____ Verb - Past Tense a _____ Adjective of a _____ Noun at Mrs. Beasley once! Jayce is another 9th grader. He spends his days _____ Verb - Present ends in ING about his S-10 truck. Sometimes you get the feeling his _____ Noun is more important than anything else he has. And believe me he has a lot! Then you have the ever _____ Adjective Gavin. It takes a long time to get _____ Preposition understand him. He just _____ Adjective and looks away. Finally it has been decided that is his way of agreeing with what you say. He tries to keep the group in _____ Noun..but it is a difficult task even for a guy as tall as he is.

Next you have Jonthan. Now Jonthan has _____ Noun that is long enough to cover his eyes. He likes to think he knows everything, when in actuality he doesn't know very much. He tries to be Mr. Hindman's _____ Noun, but it is a useless cause. Cris spends most of his time _____ Verb - Present ends in ING to dodge coughs in mid-air and _____ Verb - Present ends in ING around his suitcase. The poor _____ Adjective girl, Brie, has to deal with all of this _____ Noun. She _____ Adjective sit fairly well. She ignores a lot of what is said, but the boys need to be careful because she is in the middle of writing a story. _____ Adjective knows what or who will wind up in it!

Now 7th grade boasts mostly girls. Tristan is the lone _____ Animal. He handles himself _____ Adjective well though. He just tries to keep a sense of humor and sometimes he is too Verb - Past Tense in what is going on around him to get his work done. Chloe is the most Adjective. She spends her time Verb - Present ends in ING and Verb - Present ends in ING through the hallways. She is also known to be spotted doing a Verb - Past Tense in the Location Location. Her mom has to keep a tight reign on that wild child. Dana is the one who tries to be the Adjective of the Noun. She tries to keep everyone in line, which in itself is a full time job. I guess having all those Noun at home has helped train her as a Occupation. She has to lead or get run over! Yada is more Verb - Past Tense in Verb - Present ends in ING in her odd voices than anything. Her baby voice tends to get Verb - Present ends in ING though. Now Kaitlyne is the Verb - Present ends in ING but deadly type. You may not know she is even in class, but she is just sitting back taking everything in and storing it away for another Adjective. She is the one you should watch out for the most!
