

The Story of SFU

1. Verb - Past Tense
2. Adjective
3. Blank
4. Famous Person
5. Blank
6. Blank
7. Noun
9. Adjective Ends In Ed
10. Noun
11. Verb - Past Tense
12. Number
13. Measurement
14. Year
15. Body Of Water
16. Blank
17. Year
18. Noun
19. Blank
20. Number

The Story of SFU

Simon Fraser University was _____ Verb - Past Tense upon the recommendation of a 1962 report entitled _____ Adjective Education in British Columbia and a Plan for the Future, by _____ blank. _____ famous _____ person. _____ blank. _____ blank, who recommended the _____ Noun a new university in the Lower Mainland. The British Columbia Legislature gave formal assent on March 1, 1963 for the establishment of the university in Burnaby.

In May of the same year, Dr. Gordon M. Shrum was _____ adjective ends in ed as the university's first _____ Noun. From a variety of sites which were _____ Verb - Past Tense, Shrum recommended to the provincial government that the summit of Burnaby Mountain, _____ number _____ measurement above sea level, be chosen for the new university. Architects Arthur Erickson and Geoffrey Massey won a competition to design the university, and construction began in the spring of _____^{year}_____. The campus faces northwest over _____^{body of water}_____ _____^{blank}_____. Eighteen months later, on September 9, _____^{year}_____, the university began its first _____^{Noun}_____ with _____^{blank}_____ _____^{number}_____ students.