on the beach

A blast of warm, _____Noun breeze blew sand into the children's eyes. " _____Proper Noun," Peter shouted, rubbing his eyes.

" _____Verb - Past Participle, come here bairn. Let me wipe your _____Noun - Plural for you," she said, grabbing a soft _____Noun. She wiped the sand out of his blue-green irises. "There now, is that better?"

"Aye, Mummy; much _____Adjective - Comparative," he smiled.

"How's the water today, _____Verb - Past Tense?" she asked.

"It's a bit _____Verb - Present Tense, but I'm having fun," he replied. "I'm going back for a wee swim." He ran into the waves. His mum laughed as she watched him splashing about in the _____Noun water.
