A Witch's Brew

A witch's potion is very interesting thing full of many negative adjective ingredients. I once knew a witch who was Adjective and colour with a Adjective Adjective Noun. This is her recipe for making Noun - Plural into Noun - Plural.

Throw the pencils into a Adjective pot or cauldron along with the Part of Body of a Animal. Increase the fire until the mixture turns colour and stir in the Part of Body of a Animal and the poison of a Animal.

Then begin Verb - Present ends in ING around the cauldron and chuck in some Verb - Present ends in ING Noun - Plural. And to complete the transformation place the Part of Body of a king and the Part of Body of a queen.
