You don't care-I don't care

I am writing this letter as a follow-up to a _____ Noun I sent on Monday. Two days ago I made a very polite request for _____ Noun - Plural to help with an _____ Adjective activity during _____ Proper Noun Awareness Week (next week) and all you had to do was respond in writing or attend a _____ Noun (today at noon).

There were exactly 3 _____ Determiner who came to the _____ Adverb and I heard back from 2 other students via email. So, for those who would like to see the stats, less than 5% of the _____ Noun - Plural in this _____ Noun took the time to write or show up! Five, out of more than 100 _____ Noun - Plural!

My first reaction was easily interpreted due to the _____ Noun and flames shooting out of my _____ Noun.
OUTRAGE! Outrage times ten! I will try to be professional about this, so suffice it to say I am absolutely out of my mind with _____ Noun. How _____ Adjective can you possibly be? I consider it an _____ Noun to me personally that you would not show the courtesy of responding to my request with a simple "Sorry Dr. Jeffery, but I have _____ Noun - Plural to study for" or maybe "I apologize Dr. Jeffery, but I will not be able to attend your meeting due to a conflict with my classes".....followed up with, "But I would like to help out in any way I can, if I have the time. Just let me know if you need me to show up."

Why would I expect the basic decency of a response? Gee, I don't know....could it be that I feel the Noun - Plural in this department are treated better than any department on campus? And you ask, "Why would you feel that way, Dr. Jeffery?" Maybe its because I just spent a thousand bucks out of my own pocket last week to buy Noun - Plural for the Geo Pumpkin contest. A record low turnout, with only 12 measly

Noun - Plural submitted, but I still bought enough prizes that everyone got something, ranging from a new

Noun to Proper Noun units, to Proper Noun and finally department logo insulated coffee mugs for just showing up with an entry. Nearly a thousand Noun - Plural and all you had to do was carve up a pumpkin! I would like to have one person on this campus tell me a single department that tries as hard to bring students together as a community, as family, as we do, and also provides incentive for you to Verb! Name one, I dare you.....that's what I thought.

And now this slap in the face. Five people who want to participate to help the department bring in high school students and show them what Geography/Geology is all about. Five out of 100! All you had to do was or tell me why you couldn't. Five people.

Well, that felt good. Now onto the consequences. I am _____! Every year for the last 10 I created and sponsored Geog Awareness Week contests and invited guest speakers (ten speakers in one week last year). We had daily geo-quizzes, shirt and hat (geo themed) contests, and many other activities. Ask around, another grand in prizes for that. And the guest speakers, some of whom actually hired _____ that they met while on campus!!! Every year for a decade. But no more. I'm done with it. I am paid to _____ my classes, do my _____, go to meetings. I am not paid to invent _____ things for you to do, get you jobs and internships, or even care if you want to be a part of this department. You've shown that you don't care.....and I _____ that. It takes a bold and committed individual to absolutely _____ to be a part of something that can only benefit them in the long run. So no more _____ from me. No more _____ from me. While I'm at it, why should I bother to try to round up _____ and job positions for you. You have defined a new paradigm - students who don't do anything they don't have to do or don't feel like doing, and I like it. I like it so much I intend to _____ it.
