Apology letter

Dear Proper Noun,

I am Preposition or subordinating conjunction Adjective for my Verb - Past Tense that happened yesterday. I know I may have Verb - Past Participle on your Noun books, and Verb - Past Tense the Noun of one of the students in your class; those actions are very Adjective, and I am very sorry. I will Verb for those actions. I will bring brand new books to school and be alert 24/7 to make sure that Noun - Plural is nowhere near the surroundings of the books; and I will allow the student whose Noun I have Verb - Past Participle to insert their Noun(s) in my nose for a total of Number Noun - Plural, which is approximately Number Noun of the time I used to Verb Pronoun Noun. I hope to seeing the teachers to Adverb Verb my actions in person, which will probably occur in the next following Noun - Plural.

Sincerely,

Noun
