Gone

I ran along the _____, _____ path. I couldn't stop _____. I had _____ all of them. I _____ all the people I've ever loved. They never did anything wrong. They were _____ people and the only wrong thing they've ever done was come to like me. Staying with me as their biggest mistake and now they're _____. Now I'm all alone. I finally stopped _____ after getting to the top of the cliff that showed a view of a _____ city. It was their _____ spot. The spot that they'd always go to. The spot that they loved. The spot that they went to...that day. The day when everything seemed right, but now...now everything was _____.
Nothing was right and nothing was ever going to be right. He would just have to except that.
