Sarah's Proposal Story

Kara and I drove to _____
Location and stayed at the Helix located in the _____
Location neighborhood in the _____
Noun - Plural District. We dropped off our _____
Noun - Plural and immediately began to explore the neighborhood. It was perfect weather, and a perfect time to spend with the person I _____
Verb - Base Form most. The next day we decided to hop the red line down to the _____ Noun, but there was a glitch in the plans. The _____ Noun movement was being shut down, and to prevent _____
Noun - Plural from hiding out on the Metro, they closed the red line down in certain parts of the city. Kara, typically a _____
Adjective kind of girl, started to seem _____
Adjective. Kara asked me about a million times if we would still make it to _____
Location. We walked a few blocks and hopped another connecting line of the Metro that would take us to _____
Location, and even when we were on the Metro, Kara kept asking me if we would make it to _____
Location. I knew her behavior was _____
Adjective, but I had no idea what was about to happen next. We got to the Library and began taking _____
Noun - Plural and exploring. After exiting the overlook, I saw a book propped up on a _____
Noun. On it was a picture of Kara and I in _____
Location and a title that read, "Forever _____
Adjective." The book was filled with photographs that took us through the course of our relationship. It was one of the _____ Adjective - Ends in EST things that anyone had ever done for me. Just then, a group of school kids began coming up the stairs to the overlook room, so we packed up shop and moved on to another room. I thought it was really sweet of Kara to make the book for me, but I wasn't sure why she chose to give it to me when she did. At this point she was pulling at my hand and being clingier than usual, but I guess there are days when I'm as _____
Adjective as a _____
Noun ... because I still didn't know what was happening.

As we entered the _____ Full Name of a Person and _____ Full Name of a Person room, I stopped and put on headphones that were at a monitor to listen to a film clip of _____ First Name of a Person and _____ First Name of a Person. At that time Kara tugged on my _____ Part of Body a few times, and I told her to go "read a wall, you creep," because there was so much to _____ Verb - Base Form. At that time, her eyes welled up and she said, "I can't, because I want to ask you to _____ Verb - Base Form me." At that point I turned around and Kara got down on one _____ Part of Body and showed me the _____ Noun that I will cherish for all my days. I said, "_____ expletive!" And then immediately sat down on a bench, for fear of _____ Verb - Present ends in ING. With that Kara closed the _____ Noun box, shoved it in her pocket and started to walk away. I called her back, we got the ring on my _____ Part of Body, and spent the next _____ Number minutes laughing at how incredibly _____ Adjective we can be.

In that moment I was so incredibly grateful that someone as _____ Adjective, _____ Adjective and _____ Adjective, as Kara would want me. Which is why I began saying, "Thank You" ... and didn't stop for about _____ Location minutes. I don't know. I was in shock or something.

It was February 4, 2012, and that was our _____ Adjective moment ... Also, for the record, I haven't called Kara a _____ Noun since.
