Kick-ass Kelly

Once upon a           Noun          , in a           Adjective           land, there lived a           Adjective           and           Adjective           lad named Kelly. Kelly           Verb - Past Tense           hard to bring justice to a           Noun           filled with close-minded

          Noun - Plural           and just           Adjective                     Adjective           ass hats. Kelly possessed many Adjective           powers, eternal youthful spirit being the most           Adjective          . Those who           Verb - Past Tense           him and were familiar with his           Noun           were proud to know him. Some were even Adjective           of his ability to live out his           Noun - Plural           without           Noun           or           Noun          .

Kelly's           Noun           to           Adjective                     Noun           was a           Adjective           one, filled with many Noun - Plural           and           Noun - Plural          , but he always came out on           Adjective          .

Speaking of top, the most           Adjective           accomplishment along the way was that Kelly had top surgery to

          Adjective           his           Adjective          , once part of his female costume. Kelly           Adjective           this costume for           Adjective          , though he knew that one day he would appear to the           Adjective           as his

          Adjective           self, Kick-ass           Noun          , short and           Noun          , master of zines and           Noun           and perhaps the universe. Nothing, as you will           Noun          , is           Adjective           for Kelly.

Now boob-less and recovering in           Noun          , Kick-ass Kelly           Verb - Present ends in S           in Denver, awaiting his next           Noun          . What will it be? How will           Noun           be averted with his help? Only time would Verb          .
