

Mr. Poppers penguins

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Verb - Base Form
4. Noun
5. Conjunction
6. Verb - Past Tense

Mr. Poppers penguins

Captain Cook was investing a untidy person. Captain Cook had found evidence of the untidy person. Captain Cook pecked at the untidy _____ Noun and the untidy person was prowling because Captain Cook was pecking on the _____ Adjective person. Captain Cook frequently neglected to _____ Verb - Base Form his nest. _____ Noun Cook was plump because he was overweight. Captain Cook found an abandoned kitten in the streets. Captain Cook found a splendid car that was _____ Conjunction. Captain Cook was denying that the untidy person did not make the story funny enough. Captain Cook's thoroughness _____ Verb - Past Tense him to subdue the criminal.