A DAY IN THE LIFE AT SCOUT CAMP

Every summer, the _____ of Cub Scout Pack 9 leave their _____ behind, and head to Camp Belzer for the week. Camp Belzer is so much fun. The first thing we do every morning is recite the pledge of _____, and salute the _____.

Our first adventure is canoeing. We load _____ boys into the _____, and _____ down Fall Creek. We look for the Belzer Beast, and try not to tip the _____ over into the _____ water.

Next, we dry off and head to the _____ range. There, we learn how to position our _____ and shoot _____ at targets. Sometimes the arrows miss and hit the _____ behind the targets.

Our third adventure is a hike in the _____ woods. Sometimes we have to complete the difficult _____ course, and sometimes we enjoy the enormous _____ maze. We always do an adventurous _____ walk. There is even a zip line if you're _____ enough to _____ feet in the air to begin.

Some days we make _____ crafts. A craft might be a _____ or a huge _____ . It always feels good to be inside the _____ air conditioning.

The best part of any day is when we go swimming. The _____ is always _____ and _____, and feels so good after a long day in the _____, _____ .

can't wait to go to Camp Belzer this summer!
