Last Tuesday I spent most of the day glaring at my _____^{Noun}_____, trying to figure out what I was going to give my mother for _____^{Noun - Plural}_____ day. I could make her a collage, using various _____^{Noun}_____ cut-outs. But I don't having any _____^{Noun - Plural}_____ with me. I could buy her a gift, like a _____^{Verb - Past Participle}_____ _____^{Noun}_____ _____^{Coordinating conjunction}_____ a _____^{Adjective}_____ movie. But I don't have a job, which means I don't have any _____^{Noun}_____. I could draw her a picture. Not a simple doodle but a colorful masterpiece. My baby sister could even help me with this one! After a few minutes of searching had a pretty decent amount of art supplies. Crayons, Colored pencils, markers, paint, and chalk to name a few.
