Obama on Benghazi

I strongly condemn the outrageous attack on our diplomatic _____^{Noun} in Benghazi, which took the lives of four Americans, including Ambassador Chris Stevens. Right now, the American _____^{Noun} have the families of those we lost in our thoughts and prayers. They exemplified America's commitment to _____^{Noun}, _____^{Noun}, and _____^{Noun} with nations and people around the globe, and stand in stark contrast to those who callously took their lives.

I have directed my _____^{Noun} to provide all necessary resources to support the security of our _____^{Noun} in Libya, and to increase security at our diplomatic posts around the globe. While the United States _____^{Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present} efforts to denigrate the religious beliefs of others, we must all unequivocally oppose the kind of senseless _____^{Noun} that took the lives of these public servants.

On a personal note, Chris was a courageous and exemplary representative of the United States. Throughout the Libyan _____^{Noun}, he _____^{Adverb} served our country and the Libyan _____^{Noun - Plural} at our mission in Benghazi. As Ambassador in Tripoli, he has supported Libya's transition to democracy. His legacy will endure _____^{Adverb} human beings reach for liberty and justice. I am _____^{Adverb} grateful for his service to my Administration, and _____^{Adverb} saddened by this loss.

The brave Americans we lost represent the _____^{Noun} service and sacrifices that our civilians make every day _____^{Determiner} the globe. As we stand _____^{Verb - Past Participle} with their families, let us now _____^{Verb} our own efforts to carry their work forward.
