A recipe for disaster

Sally and John were hanging out one rainy day and decided to make a cake. They had to gather the materials before they could begin baking, but they had trouble finding a few of them. Sally had a really idea, "! I have a good idea! Why don't we just replace a few of the less important ingredients, like the Noun - Plural ?" Sally and John looked through John's room to find a replacement. They settled on theAdjective, "This smells veryso it must be to use!," said John. There also weren't enough eggs but John was able to find some smelly noodles that were the same color. When their creation was finally ready to be put in the oven to the entire kitchen was covered in When the cake came out, it smelled like instead.
