Shelbi Loses Something Important

Remember the time Shelbi lost her _____<sup>Noun</sup>?! That was _____<sup>Adjective</sup>. We were all at the movies and she kept _____<sup>Verb - Present ends in ING</sup> the whole time, even during the best parts of the movie. We were all like, "OMG, Shelbi, turn that _____<sup>Noun</sup> off!" Part of the problem is that she's so _____<sup>Adjective</sup> she doesn't fit in the _____<sup>Noun</sup> properly and she's like, folded in half. So I guess she has to do something to take her mind off being _____<sup>Adjective</sup>.

So anyway, we left the theater and got halfway to _____<sup>worst restaurant</sup> when Shelbi starts panicking in the back seat, screaming _____<sup>something you would yell</sup> I think I lost my _____<sup>Noun</sup>. My mother is going to _____<sup>Verb - Base Form</sup> me. Dad's just gonna say, "well, you're just going to have to _____<sup>Verb - Base Form</sup> this"

Then Shelbi starts talking about the time her friend threw her _____<sup>Noun</sup> in the ocean accidentally. I could tell she was _____<sup>Verb - Present ends in ING</sup>, trying to make it seem like what she did wasn't so _____<sup>Adjective</sup>.

So our driver for the evening, _____<sup>least reliable guy you know</sup>, turns the car around and floors it making the tires _____<sup>Verb - Base Form</sup>. We flew back to the theater and Shelbi _____<sup>Verb - Past Tense</sup> back in to try and save her _____<sup>Noun</sup>. We waited and waited. She never came out so we _____<sup>Verb - Past Tense</sup> and went in. She had gotten lost inside the place and was walking around shouting " _____<sup>type of crime</sup> " at the top of her lungs.

Clearly

she was Adjective. But we all were. Good thing she had offered to pay for the food at restaurant, like she usually does. That made up for the whole thing. Nothing like a free plate of type of food!
