Aaron & Leah's Story

Almost two measurement of time ago, in a galaxy far, far away, Aaron and Leah first met while in the same third grade class. They parted ways and grew into adulthood, forgetting all about each other. Then one fateful day their Part of Body locked from across a Adjective classroom once again. Feeling or Emotion at first sight you may ask? Not at all! Leah simply thought, "Where have I seen him before?" After months of praying and Verb - Present ends in ING, he finally worked up the courage to ask her for Food or Beverage. They Adverb became the couple that makes everyone say, "Exclamation

!" We all knew Aaron was talented, but who would have thought he would propose in City or Town with a song he wrote just for her! He must have done something right, because she said, "Exclamation!"
