Cal Poly Student Mad Lib

The Cal Poly freshmen was very Adjective so he decided to Verb - Base Form. His food choices were either VG's or Metro. The freshmen decided to Verb - Base Form to VG's because the student had so much of his sticky project left to do that was due the next day. The Noun - Plural were the only thing that the student ever ate because everything else was Adjective. The student took his first bite of the Noun and realized how awful the Noun - Plural really were. The student was not Adjective and wanted to be able to Verb - Base Form real food again.
