

Captain Edward John Smith

1. Year
2. Year
3. Location
4. Location
5. Location
6. First Name
7. First Name
8. Ship
9. Number In Dollers
10. Number In Dollers
11. Number In Dollers
12. Month
13. Year
14. Ship
15. Ship
16. Ship
17. Ship
18. Ship
19. Ship
20. Ship
21. Gender Ending In En
22. Gender Ending In En
23. Adjective

24. Month _____

25. Year _____

26. Number _____

27. Location _____

28. Location _____

Captain Edward John Smith

"; I cannot imagine any condition which would cause a ship to founder, I cannot conceive of any vital disaster happening to this vessel."; Yes, that's what I said in _____ Year _____. My name is Captain Edward John Smith. My life began on January 27th, _____ Year _____ at _____ Location _____ Location _____ Location _____. My mother and father's names were _____ First name _____ Smith and _____ First name _____ Smith. That was my childhood.

My adult life was very interesting. I received an education at Eton British School until I was thirteen. After I got older, I started working on _____ Ship _____ liners. First I was fourth officer on the Celtic. Then my first vessel I was captain of was the Republic. I had a salary of _____ Number in dollars _____ a year with a crash bonus of _____ Number in dollars _____. That's _____ Number in dollars _____ a year in today's money. I married Sarah Eleanor Pennington in _____ Month _____ of _____ Year _____. We bought a large twin-gabled red brick house. Sarah and I eventually called it "Woodhead."; The two years later we had a daughter and named her, Helen. I piloted seven ships in my days as a captain. The _____ Ship _____ Ship _____ Ship _____ Ship _____ Ship _____ and _____ Ship _____. Probably my most famous being the _____ Ship _____. I was going to retire after the Titanic's first voyage but, the White Star Line would have kept me from doing so, that way I could retire after the Britannic's maiden voyage.

In the last moments of my life, I helped many _____ Gender ending in en _____ and _____ Gender ending in en _____ to the _____ Adjective _____ boats. I knew it is respectful for a ship's captain to go down with the ship. I was last seen heading for the ship bridge, Month 15, Year 2:17am. Three minutes later the ship was gone. Although the experience I was very calm. I was Number years of age. Since I went down with the ship my body was, never recoverd. There are memorials all over for me such as in Location and Location. I left a great legacy on those ships long ago but, time changes.